

Persons Looking to Race

E-mails from persons looking to race will be posted here

Hi there.

I am interested in racing the Crew of 2 and looking for a boat/skipper. Haven't done this race before but have the experience. I've been sailing for 15 years, racing for 10, and currently race out of Marina del Rey. I have a Transpac under my belt (2019), a Race to Mackinac, multiple MDR to Catalina races, and years in the Vancouver / Chicago / Los Angeles sailing community. Most importantly I make a mean banana bread.

Please let me know if there are any crew-seeking captains!

Best
Lothar
